OUR STORY

Twenty years in homes across DFW

Choosing home care is one of the most important decisions a family will make.

Eminent Home Healthcare was established in 2006, right here in Dallas, Texas, and we've spent the years since working to become one of the premier home healthcare agencies in the area. Our staff brings more than 20 years of experience in the field, providing outstanding care for people of every age and every medical condition.

What sets us apart in a crowded field of DFW home health agencies is simple: we go the extra mile, offering patient families a level of benefit and support that many agencies can't match. Our licensed and insured staff bring the best available medical service alongside genuine respect for your home and your routine.

COMMON QUESTIONS

What families ask us most

Who pays for home care?

Medicare Part A, Medicaid, most private insurance and HMOs, workers' compensation, and the VA all cover home health services when delivered by a licensed agency. Many families also choose to pay out of pocket to stay at home.

I'm not sure what services I need — what now?

Call us at 214-660-4404. We'll assess your needs and, if helpful, speak directly with your physician to build a plan of care.

How do I compare agencies?

Medicare's Care Compare site (medicare.gov/care-compare) lets you check patient satisfaction ratings for agencies near you, based on real survey data.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Specialized care for medically fragile children

We provide home health services for medically fragile children — including those who are ventilator dependent, have tracheostomies, or require IV therapy or tube feedings. Eminent is contracted to provide Private Duty Nursing through Texas Medicaid CCP, and our team can help families navigate related state programs like CSHCN and MDCP.
